ON WITH THE DANCE .- A dispatch from Lithonia, Ga., dated March 9, says: "The military ball in progress to-night in the chapel of the academy is under the protection of the courts of the State. The church people sought an injunction against it. This to-day was refused by Superior Court Judge Clark, on the ground that public policy favored the meeting of the sexes. In rendering his decision Judge Clark said: "Under the circumstances, I think this dance will have to go on. It would not be right and proper for me to inter-fere at this late date. The young ladies have gone to a great deal of trouble, I know, in preparing their new dresses with all the fancy fixings known to young ladies, and the young men have bought swallow-tailed coats, low-cut vests, and fancy bosomed shirts, and it would be highly improper for me to stop the dance at this critical period. Then, again, if I were to stop this ball, it might break up several weddings. and the most serious consequences might follow, so I feel it my duty to say on with the ball."

Mr. Brasswell, a lawyer, remarked that he supposed the gentlemen of the ball would tender the judge a free ticket. Judge Clark smiled and announced that he would set April 1 as the day for hearing from both sides as to whether or not any balls should be held in this building in the future. All the society people of the surrounding county are in attendance at the ball, and the church people are holding a prayer meeting in the adjoining church for the sinners who are dancing themselvet to perdition.
